Through My Eyes: A journey of faith and freedom By Louise Wittmann Mrs

A remarkable journey that would demand courage, strength, perseverance, faith, and an answer to the question: Can I trust God with my life? As Ursula's idyllic childhood is swept away by the tides of World War II, she and her family must run for their lives to escape the deadly Red Army. Through My Eyes: A journey of faith and freedom is the true account of one family's struggle to survive the cruel realities of life in communist East Germany, where hope, faith, and bonds of love carry them through the darkness of terrible times into an unknown future. As life begins to stabilize, Ursula's decision to follow her heart threatens to take her once again from all she has holds dear.
