Editorial Review

From the Author

This was one of the things that I wanted to accomplish in my retirement. I mostly wanted my life and career on paper for the benefit of my children, grandchildren and future generations of Sullivan's. Remembering all of the events and people that I came in contact with was both rewarding and at times painful. Thanks for taking the time to read my book and please know that this was a work of love. Hugh Sullivan

From the Back Cover

Doc is the story of Hugh Sullivan, who began his military career in 1961. He joined the U.S Navy in order to "escape the cotton mill way of life" that awaited most of the young men who grew up in Hugh's town.

Trained as a hospital corpsman, Hugh - or "Doc" as Navy corpsmen are often called - did two tours in Vietnam with the Marines in 1965 and again in 1966. Afterwards, he made a career out of the Navy eventually retiring after thirty-nine years active duty with the rank of Captain and an impressive collection of medals and awards.

What happened in between enlistment and retirement-including his time served during Operation Desert Storm in the 1990s - is a story of perseverance and determination, and a lesson in how to succeed in the military despite the politics and egos one encounters on the way up through the ranks.
