Editorial Review

Review

"Best book I've read in years." -- Matt Mattocks

This really is a cracking story, and you will keep turning the pages to find out what is going to happen next. I was lucky enough to read it whilst not at work, otherwise this is the kind of book to stay awake for 'just a few more pages'. It will stop you from sleeping and you will be glad of it.

-- Chrissi for BookLore Review

"As good as anything I've read from other thriller legends such as Tom Clancy." -- Jan Hearton

There is not a dull moment in the book. The story is intellectually stimulating and the writing is cogent. All the characters contribute in their own unique way to the pace, intensity, depth and complexity of a gripping story that is sure to pull you in.

-- M. Madhavan for Readers' Favorite

"A pulse-pounding thrill ride!" -- Frances Edge

The book is a tantalizingly dangerous thriller and perhaps part of its danger lies in the fact that it seems a little too plausible for comfort in today's political and terrorist-themed world. It's no surprise that Tim Tigner was once a Green Beret and specialized in counterintelligence - his expertise drives the story onward through some complicated waters and makes it totally realistic. This is the second time I've read a Tim Tigner novel and it seems to me his works are begging to be made into action movies - they have all the elements to keep viewers in their seats, if only on the edge.

"An edge of your seat thriller." -- Leslie O'brien
