Crazy Beautiful Lies By Kathryn L James

Jenna Capwell thought she had the perfect life until a tragic accident reveals betrayals, lies, and deceit. Left broken, she believes love is just an empty four letter word.

Six months later her path crosses with Blake DeLuca, who mistakes her for the call girl he hired from an elite escort service. Jenna's moment of shock lasted less than a second before she decided to play the part—and played it well. The sizzling sex was unforgettable.

When fate places them together again, Blake stops at nothing to see her again. He's everything she should run from. A man-whore with the reputation to prove it. He never dates women more than once, yet propositioned Jenna with a 'friends with benefits' arrangement.

Hearts become involved and shatter. She made a decision that changed the rules of the game—took the risk of losing him in order to give him what he needed. Can she survive losing him? Can he survive her betrayal?

Editorial Review

About the Author

Kathryn James lives in a southern small town with her husband and kids. Being a hopeless romantic, she loves to read and write about bad-boy sexy alpha males and a strong heroine. She weaves her characters along a roller coaster ride full of angst before they reach their HEA. The beach is one of her favorite places to relax and write. But most days, when she's writing, you can find her snuggled under a blanket in a recliner with her sweet apricot poodle curled up beside her. She's loves diet coke, and is certain it helped her stay awake pecking away on her laptop writing her debut novel Crazy Beautiful Lies.
