Editorial Review

Review

“This comparative study of American and Polish courtroom discourse examines verbal interaction during criminal trials, and identifies and explains the cross-cultural similarities . . . The findings of this interdisciplinary work are of relevance and benefit to people in a variety of fields. It will be useful to practising court interpreters and translators, as well as teachers and students of translation studies. . . This book will be of benefit also to those in the field of law.” (Hanna H. Wei, Discourse Studies, Vol. 18 (3), June, 2016)
