Review

RVers will find everything they need to know about part-time or full-time working on the road. --Chuck Woodbury, NewRVVer.com

"....her own real-life experience, plus stories shared by other working RVers, to create an indispensable 'how-to guide.'" --Greg & Debbie Robus, Workamper News

From the Publisher

Jaimie Hall is an expert at working on the road as a result of 14 years experience of RV travel. She presents seminars at RV shows and related educational events on working on the road and the RV lifestyle. Currently she is the Workamper Viewpoint editor for Workamper.com, writing articles and moderating the forums.

Support Your RV Lifestyle! is the only book on working on the road which covers such vital issues as resumes, negotiating compensation, legal issues related to working and finding health insurance. The 72 pages of resources have been updated for this edition and more job ideas included.

From the Author

Since my teaching days, I have been interested in jobs and careers. This carried over to full-time RVing. I began collecting information, especially on seasonal jobs that paid well or that were fun! Thus my book on the subject.
