If My People ... By Gary H Baker

A new street drug called the “seed” has brought America to her knees. When the tide seems to be turning, the President is claiming that only with a fervent and sincere return to God can the country truly be healed . The problem is the President is a phony. What kind of hero can convince the populace that God can and will save them? Could four words do it? Could a disappeared runner do it? Could a band of truckers do it? Could a blind man named Bright Eyes do it? Or is it inevitable that America refuses God?
