Editorial Review

Review

Excellent from the start. Three days later I was in agony because I reached the end. Leaves you wanting more. -- wmpryor_gentle@yahoo.com

Haven't read a book this good since I don't know when. Every page is filled with thrilling excitement. -- grrstinson@blackplanet.com

If you like McMillan with secular fiction you'll love Rolyat with Christian fiction. Couldn't put this book down. -- pkilpatrick202@msn.com

From the Publisher

Waiting to Exit Hell is thoroughly entertaining, from beginning to ending, and is filled with colorful characters. Readers will relate to these characters and their situations, either through seeing themselves and/or people they know. It will cause you to look at the dynamics that exist in your own lives. You will laugh, you will cry, you will re-evaluate your life.

From the Author

I'm not ashamed to tell it like it is. I believe to be one of few, if not the first, to have taken a courageous step in the Christian community to write a novel, through bold and realistic use of language and illustrations, about a broken covenant with God, caused by the struggles of the flesh. I feel that it is long overdue for someone to step forward to boldly write about situational circumstances of the battle of the flesh versus the spirit and religion versus relationship, without sugar coating it.
