A Poison Tree By Margaret Windsor

“It wasn’t my fault it ended that way. I didn’t make them do anything. I didn’t pull the trigger, even if they would have done so to me, given the chance. At least, once they realized what was happening. What they had gotten themselves into. But it wasn’t my fault. Oh, no. It was something they brought upon themselves.”  Freak. Loner. Murderer. After her well-liked boyfriend dies in a mysterious accident, Claire suddenly finds herself the center of vicious rumors and dark speculations. What happened that night at the bridge? And why won’t Claire talk about it? Her friends suddenly want nothing to do with her. Garrett’s friends blame her for his death. Only Al, the mysterious boy from the wrong side of town, tries to hear her side of the story. But Claire can’t tell him; not yet. First, she wants revenge. Up against Garrett’s icy, damaged ex-girlfriend, her twisted friends, and Claire’s own demons, Claire must somehow find a way to weave her own trap, in a web of violence and deception that threatens to unravel what’s left of her life. A POISON TREE is a YA thriller. Cover Design by James from GoOnWrite
